Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 19 .- A bit of wildness by Thomas in the geventh inning. when the schoolmaster pitcher issued twe passes, and a timely drive by Coulter enabled the Hoosiers to score a tally and win to-day's game. This was the only run registered during the nine innings, Southpaw Kellum opposed Thomas on the rubber, and although the Miller's stableman pitched the kind of ball that usually wins, the Hoosier twirler had much the better of the pitchers' battle. Kellum allowed but two hits, both of which were made by Oyler, and not one Miller got to second during the exercises. Five Yeagerites managed to reach first base, but attempts to make further progress on the sacks were in vain and Kellum could not have scored a cleaner shut-out.

Both teams played brilliant ball in the field. The only error of the game was made by Maloney, when he let Kihm's drive go through in the first inning. This misplay was caused by it. Manager Yeager shook up the Millers' first, Spooner to right, Maloney to third and Yeager took his old place behind the bat. to bring good results, the shift in the field appeared to be a wise move. The sorry bungles of the day before were conspicuous for their absence and there was no chance for the Hooslers to repeat their "horse play." Watkins's men had to battle from beginning to end, and their victory was earned only through the hardest kind of fighting. Tamsett, whose work of the day before was a feature, again distinguished himself. In the third he ran nearly to the plate and gathered in a lew drive off Sullivan's bat, shot it to first just in time to get his man. It was a fast piece of work and brought him the plaudits of the crowd. In the fifth Tamsett again appeared before the limelight, when he pulled down a foul, after a long run. Kihm also played a smooth game at first, as did Fox and Marcan in their respective positions. Kellum was in splendid form and, in addition to letting the Millers down with two singles, struck out seven of the opposing players. He did not give one pass. The Hocsiers came near registering another tally in the sixth inning, but with two out, Hogriever at third and Heydon on second, Martin made a brilliant stop of Coulter's hard grounder, retiring the side. GOLF AT BROOKSIDE

Effort Will Be Made to Have Park

Board Put in Links. It is believed that an effort will be made before long to get golf links for Brookside Park, as the accommodations at Riverside are not adequate for the demand. Brookside would be an ideal place for a nine-hole course if an "eighteen" should be too large. The matter may be placed before the Park Board this fall. It is said that the cost of making a course at Brookside would be moderate.

BRITISH GOLF PLAYERS DEFEAT THE ALL-CHICAGO TEAM.

No Brilliant Performances-Chandler Egan Makes a Good Card-Miss Anthony's New Record.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19 .- Continuing their irresistible golf the visiting Oxford and Cambridge amateurs to-day took their fourth big match since they arrived in the United States by defeating the All-Chicago team Third-Five and one-half furlongs: Ocean on the Glenview Geif Club links, 7 to 4. Weather conditions and the course were ideal for record-breaking golf, but there was an absence of brilliant performances, although the Englishmen, who succeeded in capturing their matches, earned their victories handily by superior short-game play. Throngs followed the matches all day. Walter Egan, western champion: Chandler Egan, intercollegiate champion; Bruce Smith and Captain William Waller were the four home players who won from the Britons. Chandler Egan reversed matters with Norman Hunter, by whom he was defeated at Wheaton, 71 to 76. To-day Egan asked to play Hunter, the North Berwick golfer, again, and with a medal score of 18 defeated Hunter, 4 up 2. Chandler was laid a dead stymie at the first green, and had a half stymie at the second green, losing both holes. At the turn Egan was 2 up. Hunter winning the ninth by a long putt after being down at the eighth. At the fourth hole Chandler, by holing a 65 massie approach, took the bogey 5 hole in 3. Egan's card, the best of the day, follows:

Out .... 5 4 5 3 5 6 3 6 4-42 IB .... 4 3 5 5 3 5 3 4 4-36-78 J. T. Bramston defeated National Champion Louis N. James, 3 up 1, by faultless approaching and putting. Missing a putt of two feet on the eighth green by uniformly indifferent green work, James was 3 down, but he took the ninth by a good purt and was 2 down at the turn. Thereafter the Englishman had the national champion Only one match went to extra holes, the H. W. Beveridge and R. H. McElwee contest, which was taken by Beveridge, one up at the twenty-first hole. Neither played brilliantly, being over bogey at several holes. Oxonian Barne had an easy time with Prof. Zeublin, who held him to one down at the turn. Captain J. L. Low was well under bogey to the ninth hole in his match with J. M. Sellers, and only two up on the latter at the turn, but he putted well and defeated Sellers. Walter Egan won from Mansfield Hunter on the home green by halving in four, after having pulled his drive to an an almost unplayable position. He was dormine one by reason of a brilliant three at the seventeenth green. With one hole approximated, W. Egan's card was 77, while Hunter's was 79.

The other matches were not unusual. In to-morrow's invitation match at Homewood Captain Low's team will meet R. E. Hunter, G. F. Clingman, jr., W. K. Wood, Bruce Smith, Charles Zeublin, R. F. Mundy, H. J. Tweedie, William Waller and W. I. Osborne and early in the evening the visitors will leave for Niagara Falls. Miss Bessie Anthony established a new woman's match play record for the Ouwentsia course to-day in the first round of the woman's tournament for the Onwentsia cup. In her match with Miss Young, the western champion went around in ninety-one, winning by 7 up, 6 to play. This cuts two strokes off the record which Miss Anthony made earlier in the season.
